Detailed description of the musical score: The score is for page 71 and consists of 11 staves. The top five staves are for woodwinds and percussion: flute/picc, clarinet, horn, and glockenspiel. The next three staves are vocal parts: Marceline, Marie, and Pius XI. Below these are the chorus and a part labeled 'the hair'. The bottom three staves are for keyboard instruments (kbds), viola, and cello. The music is in a key with four sharps (F#, C#, G#, D#) and a 6/4 time signature. It features various dynamics such as mp (mezzo-piano), mf (mezzo-forte), and f (forte). There are also triplets and slurs in the woodwind and cello parts.

Narrator: Then, at the very moment that the seminarists were singing the "Hymn of the Ascension of the Children of Mary"

Narrator: She floated up from the ground, remained suspended in mid-air for some seconds, and cried out in an inspired and deliciously pure voice which was heard above the choir and the organs:
